TOP 12
PRINCIPLES OF LEARNING

Learning ultimately enables the well-being of the self, the family, the community, the land, the spirit, and the universe.

Learning is a habit - reflective, experiential, and contextual - based on a combination of conceptual understanding, skill, and a state of grace.

Learning comes through the comparison of what is known.

Learning makes generalized ideas and experiences.

Learning is the state of judgment, knowledge.

Learning is essential to memory, history, and story.

Learning makes progress and time.

Learning recognizes the importance of our's quality.

Learning involves recognizing that one learning is a part of a whole and only through this connection can we learn to create meaning.
